Nov 1	Sassy Massey Foundation All Saints	Janelle Massey CONFIRMED	Janelle will share her story about losing her precious 5 year old daughter, Jillian, to cancer and how she's relied on her faith to get through this tragedy. While she was still alive, Jillian helped to create the Sassy Massey Foundation whose mission is to spread kindness by delivering miles of smiles to sick children by providing toys and child life programs with playroom resources to create fun, happy, and memorable play experiences during a hospital stay or clinic visit
Nov 8	Tails of Valor	Susan Fagerstrom CONFIRMED	For the past two years, LCHS member Susan Fagerstrom has trained dogs to serve as support animals for courageous US military veterans. She'll explain the process and why she felt called to use her time and talent for this important cause
Nov 15	Worship 101 Series – Church Music	Sharon MacCabe CONFIRMED	Our Director of Music, Sharon MacCabe, will share with us her philosophy of church music and how she inspires us with music time and time again. How does music form us in faith? What is the process she uses to create such beautiful music? Come and learn about sacred music of which Martin Luther said, "Next to the Word of God, music deserves the highest praise."
Nov 22	Council Update	Bob Stevens CONFIRMED	Council President, Bob Stevens, will provide an update on the LCHS building project ahead of the congregation vote in December. He will share final building renderings reflecting the recommended upgrades and enhancements for the church.
Nov 29	The Bold Wisdom of Biblical Women Part 1 of 2	Dr. Virginia Wiles CONFIRMED	This 2-week series will explore various women in the Bible as models, perhaps even for a post-patriarchal world. What new ways of living might we—both women and men—learn from the women who have left traces in our Sacred Scriptures? Our time will be short — just two Sundays — but let's see how many women we might rediscover and learn what they may have to teach us. You can email Dr. Wiles (virginia@virginiawiles.com) with your own "favorites" among women in the Bible and we'll gather them into a thoughtful discussion that can strengthen us all in our life together.
