

August Prime Timers Events

Sunday, August 1st - Walk the arts Tour – Free on Sundays. Walk the Art Tours. Explore the art and architecture of Allentown Arts District during a free, 45-minute docent-led walking tour. Tickets available at the front desk.

Friday August 6th - Royalties at West Park at 7:30pm. Listen to a 15 piece band as they play tunes from the 40's 50's and 60's. There is also room to dance if you feel like it.

Saturday, August 7th - Reading Public Museum on 500 Museum Rd. Reading PA 19611. Cost 6$ Leave Holy Spirit at 12:30pm. Spend 1 ½ hours looking special exhibits which include iconic buildings from cities around the world recreated in Lego blocks. There is also an exhibit on Katherine Hepburn: Dressed for stage and screen. There will be costumes and fashions that were instrumental in shaping some of her most memorable characters which she portrayed over her long career. Her personal preference for relaxed casual but chic clothing led to a 1985 Lifetime Achievement Award from the Council of Fashion Designers of America. Afterwards we'll stop at a winery for a tasting and slice of pizza from the food truck at Vyncrest Winery. Returning between 4:30-5:00pm. Buy by the glass or a 4 wine sampling 2 oz. each for 10$ Call Renee to reserve a spot 484-542-0879

Sunday August 8th - Swing Time Dolls- at Emmaus Community Park from 6-9:00pm. Bring a folding chair or sit under the pavilion. They dress in the attire popular in the 1940's and sing songs from that period. Great entertainment!

Tuesday, August 10th - Allentown Band plays at Waldheim Park at 7:00pm free offering. You can drop people off at the top of the hill then park your car or park and walk up. Bring a flashlight to return in the dark.

Friday, August 20th, Royales again play at West Park at 7:30pm. See Friday the 6th for details.

Wednesday, August 25th - Prime Timers get together in Fellowship Hall at 9:30am for fun, trivia, cookies and fellowship. Remember All Are Welcome!

Thursday, August 26th-Prime Timers Book Club – 10:00am in the Emmaus Community Park. We will be reviewing “The Vanishing Half” by Brit Bennett- Twin sisters, 1 lives as white the other lives as black, who try to live in their same color skin even though 1 lives a lie. The next book for September is “The Cuban Affair” by Nelson DeMille. A mystery that takes place in Cuba, supposedly on a fishing trip. It reveals a unique slice of Cuban-American history.

Friday, August 27th 28th & 29th. Wheels of Time in Macungie. A festival of old time cars, food, entertainment and fun! Runs all day from 9:00am in the morning.

Sunday, August 29th - Eat out at The View at Morgan Hills Golf Club. Leave Holy Spirit at 4:30pm. Enjoy cocktails on their outside deck with a lovely view and order dinner to enjoy. We've been there twice and enjoyed the good food. Call Renee by the 23rd to be added to the reservation. 484-542-0879.