

Prime Timers' September Schedule

Thursday, September 1st- Lehigh Valley Pops Orchestra at LVAL free concert 9:00-10:30 am.

Saturday, September 3rd- Sangria Festival in Upper Macungie Grange Park 360 Grange Rd from 3:00-7:00 pm. Music, balloon rides, sample 9 different sangrias Tickets ahead of time $35 at park $40.

Sunday, September 4th-Swingtime Dolls at Emmaus Community Park from 6-8:00pm bring a chair or sit under the bandshell. Free

Thursday, Friday or Sunday September 8th, 9th and 11th-Emmaus Love and Hiking Date for Couples. Harold G. Fulmer III Nature Preserve Loop self-guided 1.9 miles easy 39 minutes. Off Vera Cruz Rd to Quarry rd.

Sunday, September 11th-Allentown Band Bert Myers Concert for Grandparents / Patriot Day at 3:00pm West Park free.

Thursday, September 15th-Eat out at Deitsch Eck in Lenhartsville. Meet at Crest Plaza by Appleby's at 5:00pm and head on 78 to Lenhartsville exit turn right and head ½ mile to town parking lot on the left behind the restaurant. Call Renee to reserve.

Saturday, September 17th-Art in the Park at West Park Allentown from 10:00am to 5:00pm. Dozens of artists exhibits, sculpture, photography, live band performance by Allentown Band at 1:30pm.

Saturday, September 17th- Farewell to Summer Festival at the Emmaus Triangle; Crafts, entertainment, food and drinks vendors. 11:00am to 3:00pm

Wednesday, September 21st- See the movie "Somethings Gotta Give" with Jack Nicholson and Dianne Keaton at 10:00am in rooms 117-119. We'll discuss it afterwards and eat out at a nearby restaurant. 2hr.8 min.

Wednesday, September 28th- Prime Timers Coffee and cookies get together at 9:30pm in Camp Olympic Park if weather cooperates. Otherwise back at Holy Spirit. We'll have trivia, music, "Name that Tune", humor and fellowship. All are welcome!

Thursday, September 29th Book Club will discuss "The Tea Girl of Hummingbird Lane" by Lisa See. Next book will be "Let's Just Say It Wasn't Pretty" by Dianne Keaton NF 225 pages