

Prime Timer's March events

Friday March 7th- Tee Time for adults at the Emmaus Public Library from 6:00pm to 9:00pm $25 includes 1 adult beverage per person, soda, water and light refreshments available.

Saturday, March 8th – Annual Snow Festival Blast Winter Arts sponsored by the Emmaus Arts Commission-from noon to 4: 00 pm around the triangle. There will be artists, fun activities, live music, ice sculpting, food trucks, and family-friendly events. Check <https://emmausarts.org> for list of events over the 4 hours.

Saturday, March 8th Tee Time for families at the Emmaus Library from 10:00am to 3:00pm. $5 per person children under age 4 free

Friday, March 14th- Deadline to buy tickets to “Swing the Musical” on May 6th a bus trip sponsored by Emmaus Historical Society to Hunterdon Hills near Clinton. Cost $139 includes bus, show, lunch, and gratuities. Meet at Weis in Emmaus at 9:30am. Bus returns to lot at 4:00pm call Nancy at 610-967-5715 to sign up.

Wednesday, March 19th- see the movie “Thelma” in All Saints room at 10:00am. About a 93 year old women who outdoes scammers to get her money back. We will go out for lunch with those who would like to join us.

Thursday, March 20th- Book club will meet at 10:00am and discuss -“The Magnolia Castle “ by Fiona Davis . The next book will be any biography on Satchel Paige. There are several at the libraries. Satchel by Larry Tye, Robert Skead wrote “King of the Mound”, Mark Ribousky wrote,” Don’t Look Back”. Bring your suggestions and I’ll work on books for the next 8 months.

Friday, March 21st at “Dare to Dream Junior” Disney’s musical revue with many fan favorites from Disney’s movies. Delight Disney lovers of all ages. Several shows Friday 7:00pm, Saturday at 2:00pm and 7:00 pm and Sunday at 3:00pm. All tickets $16 (plus fees) St John’s UCC Church in Emmaus- 139 N 4th Street.

Wednesday, March 26th- Come meet us for our coffee hour with fresh baked goodies, history notes for the month, trivia, medical tips and friendly conversation. All are Welcome! Wonderful fellowship!