

Prime Timer's September 2025 Events

This week try to get to St. Lukes Hospital Anderson Campus to see the fields and fields of huge sun flowers . They are behind the building on the extreme west side. Parking available and lovely paths through the flowers.

Sunday, August 31st- Swingtime Dolls at Emmaus Community Park from 6:00pm to 8:00pm. Bring your own chairs or sit under the pavilion. Their songs are from the 40's and 50's and they dress in those styles.

Thursday, Friday, Saturday September 4,5,& 6- St. Ann's fall festival 415 S. 6th street,Thursday-5-10p, Friday and Saturday open 5-11:00pm free. Ethnic food, line dancing, baking contest, rides, entertainment, etc.

Sunday, September 7th- Allentown Band concert "Salute to Bert Myers" at West Park from 3:00pm to 5:00pm. If raining the concert will be at Lehigh Valley Active Life.

Tuesday, September 9th- See the movie "The Duke" at 10:00am in the All Saints Room. Starring Helen Mirren and Jim Broadbent. A retiree who stole a Goya painting from a gallery to get the British Government to hear his complaints about their poor support for seniors. A British comedy.

Saturday, September 13th- Art in the Park at West Park in Allentown. Art, music and crafts from 10:00am to 5:00pm

Thursday, September 18th- We will talk about the Martyr. Book Group will meet in Room117-119 (Many didn't get to read it.) We have 3 books to share on "The Sins of the Wolf" by Anne Perry for September. I double checked October's "Remarkably Bright Creatures" by Shelly Van Felt and there are plenty of copies. Read ahead.

Thursday, September 18th - Eat out at Hampton Winds for lunch at 12:15pm in Hartzell Hall - 3835 Green Pond Rd. on Northampton Community College campus, Bethlehem. The students will cook for us and serve us. Call Renee to save a spot 484-542-0879. I made a reservation for 7, I need some more to join us.

Saturday, September 20th Emmaus Heritage Festival 11:00am to 3:00pm on the Emmaus Historical Society grounds. Live music, food trucks, games and PA Long Rifle demo.

Saturday, September 21st - Weyerbacher Tap Room 12 to 3:00pm 518 Bank street, “October Purr Fest” to support cat rescues. Games, fun activities, cat food donations.

Wednesday, September 24th - Our wonderful coffee hour with trivia, coffee, fresh goodies, stimulating conversation, mental challenges and fellowship. Starting at 10:00 am in Fellowship Hall. Bring a friend. Remember all are welcome!

Sunday, September 27th - Emmaus Library presents ‘Sound of Music’ Concert from 1:00 to 2:15pm. Hear live music, sing along, learn the details of the movie from behind the scenes.

Sunday, September 27th - Emmaus and Upper Milford historical societies are hosting a James and Dolly Madison Tea party at the Bartholomew Center Museum at the Camp Olympic Barn off of Cedar Crest from 1:30 to 3:30pm. Registration for tickets, call 610- 966-6924.