

Prime Timers Events for April

Thursday, April 2nd - Crystal Ball Bingo with a Cause at Sun Inn

564 Main Street, Bethlehem. register at 5:30pm enjoy food and drinks.

Every winner gets a crystal ball. Bingo benefits cancer patients with free Reiki services. Bring your stamper for the cards. Cost $36.50

April 4 - 6, Eggcellent 4-6-EggcelentAdventures Da Vinci Science Center, 815 W Hamilton St., Allentown, PA. Test your skills at Eggcellent

Adventures with creative engineering challenges, meet bunny friends from the Wildlands Conservancy, and catch Finn the striped skunk on his egg-hunting mission! Engage in interactive activities like egg catapults, “eggraving,” cost $22

Friday, April 10th - Eat out at Delizioso Italian Grill at 11:45am.

1985 Brookside Rd. corner of Lower Macungie Rd. east entrance, plenty of good food. Call Renee 484-542-087.

Tuesday, April 14th – come and watch a movie in the All Saints room at 10:00am. “Scent of a Woman” starring Al Pacino as a blind Lt. Col with a young student being his aid. No one can ever forget the tango he danced with a young woman at the Waldorf or him driving down the narrow streets of New York with only vocal help. Followed by lunch with those who want to.

Saturday, April 25th - Farm and Food Spring Market at Shankweilers drive-in in on Rt.309, Orefield. Daytime vendors sale from 9:00am to 2:00pm.

Sunday, April 26th - Help celebrate Earth Day at Cedar Beach and the Covered Bridge Park on Wehr Mill Road in afternoon from 12-4:00pm. Lots of family friendly activities, crafts, local food vendors and games.

Tuesday, April 27th- Visit the Megalithic Park 90 acres with standing stones uncut , stone chapel and bell tower. 2155 Fix Gap Rd. north of Bangor. Join us for a walk and spring picnic. We will carpool if necessary.

Wednesday, April 28th- How can you not come to our coffee hour, with fruit and baked goods? We have such fun doing solving trivia, sharing memories, and enjoying conversation. Invite a friend or neighbor.